Colemans Wins National Independent Grocer of the Year Awards
NL's largest independent grocer also honoured with top award in Québec/Atlantic Canada region

St. John's, NL, November 21, 2023 – Colemans has been named a 2023 Independent Grocer of the Year at the Canadian Independent Grocer of the Year Awards (IGYA). The awards, hosted by the Canadian Federation of Independent Grocers (CFIG), recognizes the success of outstanding independent retailers in areas of customer service, staff management, layout, merchandising, cleanliness, and community involvement.

Colemans, which operates 13 locations across Newfoundland, took home three national awards and earned the top scores in the region for its stores in St. Anthony and St. John's (Newfoundland Drive).

"Colemans is proud to nourish customers and communities across Newfoundland," says Frank Coleman, President and CEO of Colemans. "This national and regional recognition further demonstrates our commitment to deliver an authentic, close to home, shopping experience for our customers."

Colemans has been honoured with the following awards:

National Awards

- Canadian Independent Grocer of the Year, Bronze Award (Large Surface Category) – Colemans, Newfoundland Drive
- Canadian Independent Grocer of the Year, Bronze Award (Small Surface Category) – Colemans, St. Anthony
- Canadian Master Merchandiser, Gold Award (Small Surface, Single Manufacturer) – Colemans, St. Anthony

Regional Awards (Québec/Atlantic Canada Region)

- Canadian Independent Grocer of the Year (Large Surface Category) – Colemans, Newfoundland Drive
- Canadian Independent Grocer of the Year (Small Surface Category) – Colemans, St. Anthony

Colemans is proud to congratulate our award-winning locations and thanks our managers and staff for their continued dedication.
